NOTE.—All the stamps are very fine specimens. All are used unless otherwise stated. The stamps of each country are in separate envelopes, correctly marked, so that they can be easily examined, s it would consume too much space to catalogue them in full. Bids are same as on coins, so much for each piece.

485 A book containing over 1900 postage stamps. All are used except about 150. Every stamp is genuine and mostly of old issues. They were collected by an official in the postoffice at Richmond, Va., from 1865 to 1870. The lot embraces stamps of various countries and, of course, very many are duplicates. U. S. Stamps and envelopes cut occur in great numbers. Among the rest are 115 of the rare issue of (variegated colors) 1869, 1, 2, 3, 6, 10, 12½, 15, 24 and 30 cents. There are about 60 U. S. envelopes cut, most round however, from 1 to 40 cents, and about 100 Confederate, some finely cancelled specimens. A splendid lot for a dealer. Sold as one lot.

DIMES.

713 1796 Small break in the die, connecting 176 of date. A sharp bold impression. Very fine. Rare.

714 1796 Same variety. Very good.

715 1796 Die broken to the left of the date. Good.

716 1800 Obverse, all plain, date very good. Reverse, very good. Fair. Rare.

717 1801-1805 Poor and very poor. Dates plain. 2 pieces.

718 1802 Next to the rarest of the dimes. All of the obverse bold. Reverse, about the same. Surface pattinated, but for which it would be a fine specimen of this very rare date. Cost the owner, in a sale some years ago, $6.00. If sold for that now it will be very cheap. I don't think that more than one 1802 dime has appeared in the last 15 coin sales.

719 1802 Break in the die very prominent, covering the star next to L. Every particle of the obverse and reverse well struck and perfectly plain. Scratched opposite the face. Very good. Very rare.

720 1803 Good. Date fine. Rare.

721 1805 Good.

722 1807 The hair barely circulated Stars behind the head, flat. Seldom found in this condition. Very fine. Rare.

738 1831 to 1837 Fair to fine. 12 pieces.

739 1846 Good. Rare.

740 1850 The Dove variety. A prominence on right shoulder of Liberty. I catalogued this piece in one of my early sales. The prominence does not bear much resemblance to a dove, but for want of a better name, called it the dove variety. Have never seen but the one, although others may exist. For variety, excessively rare. Very fine.

11 741 1851 Fine.
10 742 1854 With arrows. Uncirculated.
